1 Q Was your husband upset or angry to find out
2 that possibly Allan had been in trouble with the law?

3 A He wasn't upset, but we were talking --
4 because I was already crying at that time. He was 5 trying to calm me down because he wanted to take me to 6 the hospital.

7 Q Why were you crying?

8 A I was shaking and I was nervous and I can hear
9 the pounding of the door and that really bothers my 10 ears. And I was shame of my neighbors, police were all
11 over the place. I can see the two outside, but I don't
12 know how many more outside and so I was so ashamed.

13 Q Were you ashamed because of you were concerned
14 about what your neighbors might think of you because the 15 police were around your house?

16 A Coming to the house with the police was shame
17 already, but Badua told me he went over, I don't know
18 which of my neighbors, he went over to tell my neighbors
19 about my son. That makes me really shame.

20 Q When you say he went over to your neighbors,
21 did he go to one house or more than one house?

22 A I don't know how many houses, but he told me,
23 I went over to your neighbors and I told him about your 24 son. So kind of shame, yeah, for me to even think that,
25 you know.

1 Q After June 3, 2003, did you ever talk to your
2 neighbors to find out who he had spoken to?

3 A No. I didn't even bother to ask because I was
4 so shame, but we talk.

5 Q You did talk to your neighbors?

6 A Yeah. But not about Badua.

7 Q You keep on saying, you are shame. Is there
8 any particular reason why you are shame? I know I asked
9 with regards to whether or not you were ashamed of what
10 your neighbors thought about it, but is there any other
11 reason?

12 A No. That's the only time because telling your 13 neighbors about my son that I don't even know. They 14 might think that I am -- just to talk about my son,
15 telling my neighbors about my son, he has to tell me
16 first before my neighbors.

17 Q Since June 3, 2003, have you spoken to your
18 son, Allan?

19 A He came home just September 3, to renew his 20 passport.

21 Q In September of 2003, right?

22 A Four.

23 MR. SCHWEIGERT: I believe it's September
24 of 2003.

25 THE WITNESS: He didn't come home this
